

Global Fusion Art
Multicultural Artists and Communities Inspiring a Better World

Global Fusion Art Membership Program

Join our community of inspiring and passionate multicultural artists on our mission to support cultural diversity in arts and sharing a vision for a better world. Positive social change starts with our united effort to raise awareness of the global community and promote individuals and organizations that provide humanitarian services across the world.

Membership benefits include:

- Participation in future short and long-term exhibition opportunities in local NY galleries and alternative exhibition spaces in addition to monthly GFA events. Future long-term exhibitions will be announced exclusively to GFA members.
- Members will also have their own artists page on the Global Fusion Art website. Visual artists can include up to 8 images of artwork, artist statement, bio/resume, contact information.
- Member news, event listings, call for submissions and other topics of interest will be shared in the Global Fusion Art newsletter. The newsletter and announcements will be widely distributed and promoted with an ever growing network of Galleries, Private Dealers, Curators, Corporate and Individual Collectors, Corporate Art Consultants, and various other art and community service related organizations and institutions.
- Global Fusion Art will continue to support social change and support humanitarian services by maintaining and developing relationships with various institutions and organizations that serve the needs of people and places around the world. Organizations such as Society for Health Promotion Links, MothersToMothers, Unicef, Nature Conservancy, Grameen Foundation and various other communities and organizations will be actively promoted and represented in future events.
